

Resources / Bibliography

Websites:

<http://www.talestoldtall.com>

<http://www.guysread.com>

<http://library.booksontape.com/>

guyslisten.cfm

<http://www.gettingboystoread.com>

<http://www.rif.org/parents/>

<http://www.k12reader.com/boys-and-reading/>

<http://readwritethink.org/beyondtheclassroom/>

<http://www.hartlandschools.us/schools/orecreek/hotlinks.html>

Books:

Best Books for Kids Who (think they)

Hate to Read by Laura Backes

Boys and Literacy by Elizabeth

Knowles and Martha Smith

Connecting Boys with Books: What Libraries Can Do by Michael Sullivan

Books for Boys by Genre (cont.)

Sports Authors:

Tim Green	Walter Dean Myers
Dan Gutman	John Feinstein
Mike Lupica	Matt Christopher

Action /Adventure Authors:

Gary Paulsen	Walter Dean Myers
Gordon Korman	Ben Mikaelson
Todd Strasser	Jean Craighead George

Nonfiction books:

Rather than adults selecting books, let boys choose subjects in which they have an interest. Ask for assistance from librarians and teachers in finding information on unusual subjects.

This list represents only a small sample of the available books and authors that boys enjoy reading. Use the website book lists and your local librarians for more information.

Boys and Reading: Making the Connection

<http://www.michiganreading.org>

Brochure developed by: Bonnie Wolf and Barb Benford, Round Elementary School, Hartland Consolidated Schools, Harriet O'Brien, Jeanne Smith, Youth Librarian, Cromaine Library, Hartland

Boys and Reading: Making the Connection

Looking for ways to encourage boys to read and enjoy books...

Michigan Reading Association Title I Special Interest Council

<http://www.michiganreading.org>