Stuff the Truck Diaper Drive November 17 and 18

Last year you helped us collect over 17,000 diapers for the Canton-based Detroit Area Diaper Bank. This year, we're aiming for more—a whole truckload. Fat Chef in a Little Coat owners Steve and David Hulett donated their truck for this event and library director Eva Davis will camp out in it during the drive. We need your help to stuff the truck so bring your diapers, any brand or size, baby through adult, to the library on November 17 and 18. Open packages are acceptable; if diapers are loose, please indicate the size on the bag or box.

The Detroit Area Diaper Bank is a nonprofit charitable organization serving SE Michigan to meet the need for diapers at partner agencies working with people in crisis. For more information, visit www.detroitareadiaperbank.org.

Go Green with Email Notices

In an effort to cut costs and help the environment, CPL will end mailed notices January 4, 2011. To continue getting reminders that your materials are due, holds are available, or to receive statements regarding fines, sign up for email notices. On the library website, www.cantonpl.org, select My Account from the left column, log in and click on the Personal Info button. From there, enter a valid email address and click the Email button. Click on the Submit button and you're done. If you don't have an email address, you may instead receive telephone notices.

Barnes & Noble Book Fair

Everyone loves to receive books, games, CDs and DVDs as gifts. So shop for these items at the Northville Barnes & Noble store on November 29 and the library will benefit. During this one day book fair, present the CPL voucher on this page and the library will receive a percentage of anything you buy, including a Nook. You can also shop online from November 29 to December 4 and use the code 10289981. We'll host storytimes and other activities at B&N that day so watch our website for details and thanks for supporting your library.

Free Press Gift of Reading

Once again, the Canton Public Library is a drop-off point for the Detroit Free Press Gift of Reading program. Bring your donation of a new, unwrapped book, appropriate for children up to grade 4, to the Checkout Desk November 1 through December 3.

Overdue Fines Change

Beginning January 4, 2011, CPL will standardize overdue fines throughout the library by making the fines on children's, tweens and teens materials twenty cents a day. The increase will make fine amounts consistent throughout the collections. To view our borrowing policies, including loan periods and fines for all material types, visit www.cantonpl.org/services/borrow/loanitms.html

Make a Donation, Get a Tax Credit

Your tax-deductible contribution to the Canton Public Library benefits not just the library, but the entire Canton community. It will help the library continue to provide the services and resources that keeps our community vibrant and connected. And there's good tax benefit in it for you. Donations received prior to December 31, 2010 may be claimed on this year's taxes, reducing your Michigan Income Tax or Michigan Business Tax.

A gift to the Operating Fund helps with day-to-day library expenses. A gift to the Endowment Fund will help our endowment grow to our target of $1 million. There's an easy online donation button on our website or you may mail or drop off a check. Mark "operating fund" or "endowment fund" in the memo portion.
