Strategies of Success (SOS) is designed to give existing businesses a way to connect with valuable resources in the area, and arm them with information to help them stay successful.

Supervisor Phil LaJoy encourages all Canton businesses to attend this workshop, however space is limited. Please register in advance by Friday, January 22 by calling the Canton Chamber of Commerce at 453-4040.

This introductory series is free to Canton businesses and Canton Chamber members. The fee is $10 per workshop, per person for non-Canton businesses and non-Canton Chamber members.
