

Young Heroines II: Their Voices & Their Lives An Audiobook Selection

Brown, Larry Fay

At 17, Fay Jones leaves her family's squalid home with $3 and heads for Biloxi.

Dunant, Sarah The Birth of Venus

In the late Renaissance Florence, young Alessandra must choose her own path: a marriage of convenience to her brother's homosexual lover, or a dangerous love affair with the house painter.

Goodman, Carol The Lake of Dead Languages

Jane Hudson returns to teach in a private girls' school in upstate New York, and her past as a student there comes back to haunt her.

Lamb, Wally She's Come Undone

13-year-old Dolores Price rolls into young womanhood at 257 pounds, and determines to give herself one more chance.

Letts, Billie Where the Heart Is

A teenager gives birth in a Wal-Mart in Oklahoma.

McCuller, Carson The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter

A quiet, sensitive girl searches for beauty in a small, but damned Southern town.

McDermott, Alice Child of My Heart

A beautiful woman narrates her coming-of-age during one summer among the Long Island playgrounds of the rich.

McEwan, Ian Atonement: a Novel

On the hottest day in 1935, three children lose their innocence and their lives are forever changed.

Morrison, Toni The Bluest Eye

11-year-old Pecola Breedlove, a black girl, prays for her eyes to turn blue so that her world will be different.

Picoult, Jody My Sister's Keeper

13-year-old Anna Fitzgerald has been providing platelets and bone marrow to keep her sister alive. Now she says no more.

Tartt, Donna The Little Friend

A young girl with a brother murdered years ago decides to find and punish his killer.
