Write a short story inspired by this line from Frankenstein by Mary Shelley: "Nothing is so painful to the human mind as a great and sudden change."