

Dots and Boxes is a two-player pen-and-paper game where players take turns drawing horizontal or vertical lines between dots on a grid. Completing the fourth side of a box captures it, allowing the player to initial it. The player with the most captured boxes wins.

